

Entrepreneurial Tips For Tough Times

Rapid shift in our economy and the uncertainty facing Entrepreneurs makes it even more important to look ahead and plan appropriately. Raising, saving and making the bucks in tough times is going to be a challenge:

- ◆ How can Entrepreneurs position themselves to gain access to investments and market opportunities?
- ◆ What options are there for Entrepreneurs to continue to make headway in building their businesses?
- ◆ Do Entrepreneurs need to penny pinch - if so where should they cut?
- ◆ Is merging with a competitor an option to make headway?

Find out when a panel of experts from the investment community, legal, and business convenes to discuss the above topics.

Leading this interactive event and taking your questions are:

Lois Wong – Business Relations Manager, CCICE

Panel Moderator:

Scott Smith, Emerging Companies Practice Chair, Hanson Bridgett

Panelist:

Jacqueline Kessel, Head, Silicon Valley Office, Hanson Bridgett

Bill Kunz, Sand Hill Angels

Carl Showalter, General Partner, Opus Capital

Peter Howley, Chairman, The Howley Management Group

Date: Tues. November 11, 2008

Time: 06:00pm to 08:30pm

Venue: Michaels at Shoreline
2960 N. Shoreline Blvd
Mountain View, CA
94043

Directions:

<http://michaelsatshoreline.com/location.html>

(6:00 -6:30 Registration/Hors
D'oeuvres provided)

6:30 – 8:30 Program Begins

General Event Information

Free for CCICE Members

www.acteva.com/go/ccice

$15 Members of Affiliate

Organizations

$20 Non - Members

REGISTER NOW

Registration Link/Information:

<http://www.acteva.com/go/toughtimes>

<http://www.ccice.org/ToughTimes.html>

